SOUTH AFRICAN SOCIAL SECURITY AGENCY

The South African Social Security Agency's (SASSA) Social Relief of Distress (SRD) programme serves as intervention to assist needy and qualifying learners to receive school uniform from the Agency.

The Agency is playing its part in fulfilling the 2030 nation building vision as the former President Nelson Mandela once said "Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world." This uniforms are a tangible demonstration of the government's efforts in ensuring that no child is left behind.

The total budget allocation of the 2023/24 financial year for all Social Relief of Distress (SRD) programs is R85 418 520 with a top up of R9 715 500. The total amount spent thus far is R55 350 000 for all SRD programs in the province. For the Back to School Campaign only, SASSA has already spent a whopping R12 568 500 for 4655 children across the four SASSA KZN Districts.
