- Your application form will be completed in the presence of an official from SASSA;
- When your application is completed you will be given a receipt;
- Keep this receipt - it is your only proof of application;
- You do not have to pay any money to apply;
- If your application is not approved by SASSA, you must be informed in writing as to why your application was unsuccessful;
- You have the right to request SASSA to reconsider its decision, if you are unhappy with the decision made. If the reconsidered decision is still unfavourable, you have the right to appeal to the Minister of Social Development. The request for SASSA to reconsider its decision must be made within 90 days of you being informed of the outcome of your application.

Date Of Award Of Grants

If you wish to use your own account, you will be liable for all costs related to that account, if you use the SASSA card, then there are no costs to you, unless you use the card for services in excess of those SASSA pays for.

Life Certificates
If you do not collect your own grant with a biometric validation (fingerprint), you will be asked to provide life status confirmation (proof of life) once per year. You will be informed in advance of the requirements.

Social Relief Of Distress
Social relief of distress is the temporary provision of assistance intended for persons in such dire need that they are unable to meet their or their families’ most basic needs. Social Relief of Distress is paid to South African citizens; permanent residents or refugees, who have insufficient means, are resident in South Africa and meet one or more of the following criteria:

- The applicant is awaiting payment of an approved social grant;
- The breadwinner of that household has been found medically unfit to undertake remunerative work for a period of less than 6 months;
- The breadwinner of the household has been deceased and application is made within 12 months of the date of death;
- The breadwinner of that household has been admitted to a public or private institution for a period of at least one month.
- The applicant has been affected by a disaster as defined in the Disaster Management Act or the Fund Raising Act, 1978.
- Refusal of the application for social relief of distress will cause undue hardship.

Period Of Social Relief Of Distress
Social Relief of Distress is issued monthly for a maximum period of 3 months. An extension for a further 3 months may be granted in exceptional cases. Note: No person who is in receipt of a social grant may receive the grant and social relief of distress simultaneously. Any person who received both social relief and a grant at the same time must repay the value of the social relief of distress received. This will be recovered from any social grant payment, including an arrear payment. However, where the person who is in receipt of a social grant received social relief of distress as a result of a disaster, that amount will not be recovered.

Responsibility of the Beneficiaries
It is the responsibility of beneficiaries to keep SASSA informed of changes in their circumstances and means, and to respond to any correspondence received. It is a beneficiary’s responsibly to safeguard his/her SASSA card and not to divulge the PIN to anyone.

Fraud
SASSA exercises zero tolerance to fraudulent activities.

What Is A Means Test
In South Africa Social Assistance is subject to means testing which implies that SASSA evaluates the income and assets of the person applying for social assistance in order to determine whether the person’s means are below a stipulated amount. This means test is a way of determining whether a person qualifies to receive a grant as grants are indeed meant for those who have insufficient means to support themselves. The means test varies from one grant type to another. Note: Grants for older persons, war veterans and disabled are paid on a sliding scale. that is, the more private income you have, the smaller the government pension you will qualify for.
